

Rubric: Course Work Completion

Your completion assignments will be marked according to effort and out of five marks. These activities help you practice and learn material, that you have:

- Completed the required reading/activity and gave it some thought.
- Answer all of the questions, properly formatted the assignment, and you will receive full marks.
- Submit on time and meet the expectations discussed in class.

The following rubric will be used:

5	Student has handed in a complete, thorough, properly formatted assignment that fully meets expectations in terms of comprehension, analysis, and a willingness to engage with the work being studied. It has rich detail, depth and strong development of topic. Submitted on time.
4	Student has handed in a complete, properly formatted assignment that fully meets expectations in terms of comprehension, analysis, and a willingness to engage with the work being studied. It has good use of detail, depth and development of topic. Submitted on time.
3	Student has handed in a complete, properly formatted assignment, but it only shows a surface reading or completion of the work. It may appear to have been hastily executed for the sake of completion rather than to achieve an understanding of the work or works being studied.
2	Student has submitted the assignment, but it shows little understanding of the reading and is clearly insufficient in terms of effort. This assignment may be incomplete and may include errors that interfere with meaning. Missing some elements of activity/assignment
1	Student has submitted the assignment, but it lacks insight, understanding of the reading and is clearly insufficient in terms of effort. This assignment may be incomplete and may include errors that interfere with meaning. Most of the assignment is incomplete.
0	Did not complete/submit

Response is easy to read and contains few, if any, errors. 3 This response may contain some basic errors, but none that interfere with meaning. 1 or 2 Student has submitted the assignment, but it shows little understanding of the reading and is clearly insufficient in terms of effort. This assignment may be incomplete and may include errors that interfere with meanin